

PRATT ACADEMIC SENATE APPC SENATE REPORT

By APPC Chair Sean Sullivan, April 5, 2011

In order to accommodate exigencies resulting from the violation of deadlines by the administration, the APPC met four times after the middle of the Spring semester, including a special 9-hour meeting over spring break.

List of Courses, Programs and Policies reviewed to date for Spring 2011 (Does not include Fall 2010):

Course Review:

135 courses, including 25 courses associated with Program Review or Program Revision (see list below)

Non-content Based Course Review:

128 courses; received February 24 and March 9.

New Program Review:

CCPS: Accelerated Bachelor of Professional Studies Degree Program in Professional Services Management – (review underway)

SILS: Dual-Degree with Brooklyn Law: Master of Science, Library & Information Science and Law Librarianship, Masters, MSLIS & LLM – (review underway)

Program Revision Review:

A&D: Department of Digital Arts, Master of Fine Arts program MFA – (review underway)

A&D: Department of Industrial Design, Master of Industrial Design program, MID – (review underway)

A&D: Department of Arts and Culture Management, Master of Professional Management program, MPS – (review underway)

Policy Review:

International Baccalaureate (IB) Policy – (review underway)

Other Actions:

The Senate approved, unanimously, the inclusion student representation as non-voting members of the APPC. The Senate approved student representation from the Student Government Association: APPC member, Nate Feldmann, Chair of Academic Concerns and APPC alternate member, Cody Hughes, President of the Student Government Association.

The APPC will continue to meet weekly to complete reviews.