

Screening and Talk by Filmmaker Sari Lluch Dalena

5:00- 7:00 PM

Wednesday, February 7, 2007

Alumni Reading Room (Pratt Library)

Pratt Institute, 200 Willoughby Ave., Brooklyn, NY
(Take "the G" to Clinton/Washington)

Ms. Dalena will screen her film Memories of a Forgotten War, a documentary on the Philippine-American War of 1899. This film was the closing film at the Documentary Fortnight at the MOMA. Ms. Dalena will be available for questions and commentary and will also screen a clip from her new film Rigodon, time permitting.

Sari Dalena is an independent filmmaker from the Philippines. She has a Masters Degree in Film Production from NYU and has been the recipient of a Fulbright scholarship.

This event is sponsored by the Aesthetics and Politics Lecture Series: Focus on the Philippines and by the Critical and Visual Studies Colloquium.
